

From February 27 to March 16, a group of artists will show the impressive variety of the art of drawing. All participating artists have followed the Drawing Inventions Academy, a master program guided by Arno Kramer, Caren van Herwaarden, Marisa Rappard and Dineke Blom. The program encourages artists to reflect on their own and each other's works and make new steps in their development. The works of this exhibition have been selected by Arno Kramer, visual artist and advocate of drawing as an autonomous discipline in the Netherlands.
